Blurb:

I'm a well read editor with great knowledge of genre cinema and long form television, experience in straight drama, horror and comedy. I care about visual style, pacing and most of all telling the best story possible. Filmmaking in general has been my main focus since the age of about 20 and I've dabbled in other departments along the way including directing, producing and camera..so I understand the needs and expectations of other people in the cutting room.
